Requesting sanction to an extent of 30 guntas of land out of the village site in Tigalar Palya, attached to Basavanapur village, Bangalore Talak, being assessed and given out for cultivation to one Madappa of the said village

Submitted to Secretary.

The Palya is marked X in blue pencil in one of the village maps put up.

The total extent of the Palya is 36 guntas. There were 6 huts till 1877. In 1884, Madappa purchased 4 sites in the Palya from their former owners. (vide sale deed produced). The extent of these 4 sites is stated to be 30 guntas.

In 1889, Madappa requested the Amr. to assess the land

In the meanwhile the land was cultivated with mis: garden crops. and in 1894-95 Patel, Buddappa (Madappa's brother) was fined Rs: 3/-

The remaining 2 sites are owned by one Arlappa - for which he pays a Mohatarfa of Re 1/- His portion is also cultivated with mis: garden crops.

The question is — If there is no objection to the Palya being re-built, why should not the whole of it be assessed once for all? What does the owner of the 2 sites say?

Sir,

I have the honor to request sanction of Government to a piece of Kharab land measuring A-G. 2-5 in Vadakanté village, Nelamangala Taluk being assessed and given out for cultivation to Mrs. Ramalamma widow of the late Mr. A. Krishnaswami Iyengar.

2. The applicant holds in that village survey Nos. 60, 61, 62, 63, 64 and 72. The land applied for is close to that holding and is the site of an old deserted Pálaya, a portion of which, viz. 7 guntas, is already in the possession of the applicant by purchase from one Ramanya, who had purchased the same in an auction sale for building purposes.

3. I have inspected the spot. It is no longer required for building purposes, as the village proper is more than ½ a mile from the spot.

4. The land contains some tamarind and other trees with a "Soje" bush.

The Taluk authorities had valued the Málike at Rs 20/. but I thought that it was well worth Rs 100/, which has been paid.

subject are enclosed.

2. The Palaya referred to was deserted in famine of 1876-77. The applicant purchased some vacant sites from the owners for Rs 20/- and intends to grow miscellaneous garden crops therein. There is no present prospect of the Palaya being rebuilt. Moreover it is about half a mile from the village proper. There is no objection to the application.
